New Advertisements.

Attention is directed to the advertise ment of Bolivar H. Cooke & Co., wholesale dealers in clothing, who have opened and have now ready for inspection their stock for the spring trade, comprising the largest and most select assortment this firm has ever brought out. These goods were purchased by Mr. Cooke, who it is useless to say has no superior as a buyer anywhere. All the goods are in proper trim, and the gentlemanly attachees of the house will be pleased to see the country trade.

The name of Maj. James L. Rice is announced as a candidate for joint Representative from the counties of Davidson, Robertson, Cheatham and Montgomery, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Hon. Win. Moore. New and second-hand furniture, dry goods, shoes and notions, for sale at auction by Barnes & Co., this evening. Italian marble, statuary, etc., at auction this evening, at 21 and 7 r. M., by Barnes & Co., at No. 3 Cherry street.

The next term of the University of the South will begin on the 14th of March, continuing seventeen weeks. Two unfurnished rooms for rent at No. 13 Park street. Information wanted of Bill Madkins, colored, by his mother. Pertilizers of standard quality, by Wm. Stockell & Son. See insolvent notice of Emily C. Walton, administratrix.

Our well-known citizen, F. M. Woodall, is a candidate for sheriff at the next election. He would make a good officer, and is withal a clever gentleman.

When Larry Ryan, who always has an eye to business, strolled down that street and invaded the premises he found a lot of wood in Drun's house and accordingly arrested him. He was placed in the workhouse last night and will have a hearing to day.

Destructive Fire, About 11 o'clock last night a fire broke out in the kitchen of residence No. 10 south Summer street cwned by Mrs. Dr.W. A. Cheatham and accupied by Mr. Tugen-drich as a boarding house. The flames were first issning from the kitchen roof, and owing to the wind, spread quite rapidly, communicating with the main building. It is impossible at present to ascertain the loss which must be heavy, as the interior of the building was damaged by the fire and water to a total extent. The furniture be-longing to Mr. Tugendrich together with that of Mr. Mike Powers, one of the boarders, was saved much of it in a damaged condition from the hasty manner in which it was taken to pieces and removed. Some of the articles in the culinary department, together with the stores of the family, were lost. The kitchen which was a part of the ell in the rear of the main building was occupied by a colored woman and other colored people lived in the building or within the enclosure. As to the cause of the fire there are several conjectures, one of which is, that it originated from the fire in the kitchen stove, another that it was the work of an incendiary. We have heard, when the fire broke out. About ten or fifteen minutes after the fire commenced a colored woman came up from towards Broad street, screaming and apparently much terrified at the probable fate befalling her child which she had left in her room. A colored friend had brought it from the scene of danger, however, and placed it in the affrighted mother's arms. Mr. Andrew Grigsby, who was sleepng in a room of the frame house in front of the burned dwelling was ruthlessly disturbed from his slumbers and had barely time to secure the safe removal of his sleeping apparatus and bachelor goods to Mr. Sandy Carter's on the opposite side of the street in whose house they were deposited. In the case of Huggins et. als. vs. Hill and others, the complainants some two months ago, upon the affidavit that the inunction in the case had been violated by the defendants, some twenty-five in number, by holding an election for Directors of the McMinnville and Manchester Railroad Company after the issuance and service of injunction granted by Judge Frazier, Judge of the Criminal Court, inhibiting defendants from holding said election, obtained an attachment for contempt against defendants. They all appeared yesterday and the motion to discharge the attachment and to take the bill of complainants from the files was argued by Judge Harrison, Gov. Foote, and Judge Shackleford for defendants and by Judge Tilman, Capt. Carnes, Mr. Burger and Col. Savage for complainants. At the conclusion of Col. Savage's argument, the court adjourned until this morning when Col. Colyar will conclude for defendants.

To criticise the splendid performance of this splendid orchestra is impossible. They are simply perfect. Among the far-famed orchestras of Europe are not to be found greater precision, expression and power, the utmost qualities to be obtained from an orchestra. The company is composed of sixty artists, and the orchestra itself numbers over fifty distinguished performers, which is the largest troupe that have ever undertaken a tour either in this country or

The instruments used comprise twenty violins, led by Mr. B. Listemann; five violins, four violincellos, four double basses, one harp, one piccolo, two flutes, two oboes, one corno anglais, two clarionettes, two bassoons, four French horns, two trumpets, three trombones, one tuba, kettle drum, bass drum, etc. Every man, including those who play the tympani and the triangle, is an artist, and every instrument does to perfection. The violin its part bows moved together as if directed some common agency, and the whole performance is infused with the genius of the great Director, resulting in the most exquisite rendition of classical instrumental music that has ever been attempted any where.

Of Miss Marie Krebs, it can be truthfully said that she ranks with the great planists of the world. Her repertoire is very large, and her powers of memory may be compared to that of Bulow and Tausig. She plays all the well-known concertos by the great masters, the fugues by Bach and others, the bravura pieces by Liszt, Raff, Rubinstein, etc., the poetic effusions by Chopin and Schumann, from memory. Both her technical power and her musical understanding have been the theme of the most appreciative comments of the great critics of the capitals of Europe. Undoubtedly her schooling, coming from her parents, must be looked upon as one of the chief causes of her remarkable musical accomplishments. Her father is an eminent musician, a well-known composer, occupying the high rank of first Chapelmaster at the Royal Theatre in Dresden, and her mother was one of the best contralto singers Germany has possessed. Owing to them, Mlle. Krebs has learned more of music than many who have spent a life-time in the pro-

WAR DEPARTMENT. OFFICE OF THE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER.
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 1, 1872. Probabilities.-The low barometer south of Western Fiorida will probably move northeastwardly into the South Atlantic States during the night. The area of rain extending by Saturday morning to Virginia, and of snow from Northern Mississippi to probably the Ohio Valley, will increase to partially brisk northeasterly winds along the South Atlantic coast. Clearing weather with winds veering northeasterly will extend eastward from Texas into Alabama Saturday morning and Western Tennessee and Georgia by evening. Pleasant weather will prevail over the New England States, and increasing cloudiness over the Middle States with probably threatening weather from Pennsylvania southward. Dangerous winds are not anticipated this evening, except possibly for the South Atlantic and LATEST MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.
